Negroes Cannot Get Into Churches, Hotels and Theatres Unless They Have a Pull.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOSTON, MASS., March 22.—In a four-column article here Ralph Ber-gengren, a well-known writer, reviews the negro situation in Boston, and shows that there is race discrimination here and drawing of the color-line, as

here and drawing of the color-line, as claewhere,

The movement is yet unorganized, he says, and inchoate, but it is slowly galning. Many churches, hotels and theathes exercise this discrimination. Negroes known to have white associates, however, are admi, ed where other negroes are barred. Although the position of the colored man is to-day perhaps more assured and self-respecting in this city, than anywhere clae in America, the color-line is still in evidence. To the strange negro the hotels are remarkably full of patrons and the best theatres surprisingly prosperous.

which about six freight cars were demoished and derailed. One care of horses ished and deralled. One care of horses overturned and rolled down an embaniment, and thirteen were killed outright, one piled on the other. It was a sickening sight. Some few escaped, badly wounded.

The accident was caused by a good many cars, heavily londed with new ralls, being allowed to get loose on a steep grade above here, and running back, crushed into the southbound freight, No. 21, with the above disastrous result. The engine of No. 21 was niso badly damaged and deralled. At 10 A. M., when I saw it, the track, was being cleared as rupidly as possible. Richmonders in New York.
